The USJIC will have retained jurisdiction of 18 months from the date a criminal offense was done. The USJIC will deny the qualification of a federal grand jury made available to a defense attorney early so USCJ could proceed within 6 months from the beginning of 90 days from the date transferred to the agency. This implication will be along all per notification 6 months from the filing. Within 90 days from the release "Duke's Statement". When ever it later arrives, response is provided by the USJIC regarding the manner recommendation as to the commission of a serious crime.
